consolidation should be so arranged as to ensure that the extra work is distributed evenly without the need for additional staff in any case.

(g) The amount of bills actually cashed in a month should be taken for the purpose of the statement in Form 'A'. In the case of bills payable at Bangalore, the date of pre-audit cheque will be the date of disbursement irrespective of the date of encashment of the cheque. The amounts to be taken are the gross amounts of bills even though the net amount may be drawn after deduction towards funds etc.

(h) Some of the Departments are sending statements of expenditure to the Finance Department and as it is the responsibility of the Departments to reconcile the figures, such statements need not be sent to Finance Department.

Any doubts or difficulties may be referred to the Finance Department for elucidation. The Special Officer (Treasuries) may also be contacted by the departmental clerks at Bangalore personally during office hours for clarification of points, if any.

Yours faithfully,

M. SHAMANNA,

Secretary to Government,
Finance Department.
